Dear Judge Hanson:

My name is Richard Bundy, Ted Bundy's fourteen year old brother. I am writing this letter to you to let you know what I think of my brother, to let you know that ~~that~~ he would never even think of doing the things that he is accused of doing, and that he is a very decent human being. All the fourteen years I've known him he's always been a very sensible, understanding brother to me, And he always managed to find time to spend with his family. Although sometimes he didn't have have time because he was trying to make a living, going to law school so he could be a lawyer, and wouldn't have to waste his time with two dollar an hour jobs. So if you think about what I just wrote you'll understand that the verdict is really not guilty. Now I'm not trying to tell you how to do your job; I just want you to know that I'll always believe in my brother, like he believes in me and his family and friends. To know my brother is to believe in my brother, and to believe in my brother is to know he's one hell of a good guy. I'm proud he's my brother because I know that he really tried hard and so did his lawyers to prove that he's really innocent, and he didn't give up hoping and neither did we. He will always be in our prayers. To me he will always be a brother that really loves his family, and nobody will ever be able to take that love and concern out of our family.

Sincerely yours,
Richard Bundy
